

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Marc Theeboom

Degree: PhD Sport and Movement Sciences

Affiliation: Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB) – Brussels, Belgium

Position Title: Full Professor

marc.theeboom@vub.be

Education/Training

PhD degree in Sport and Movement Sciences

Master's degree in Adult Educational Sciences

Postgraduate degree in Sociology of Leisure

Positions and Scientific Appointments

Full Professor at Faculty of Physical Education and Physiotherapy and at Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences

Chair Research Group 'Sport and Society'

<https://saso.research.vub.be>

Honors

PhD degree (summa cum laude)

Master's degree (magna cum laude)

First prize at 'Shenjiang International Forum on Wushu', Shanghai University of Sport (China) (2010).

Selected Publication

Theeboom, M., Schaillée, H., Roose, R., Willems, S., Bradt, L. & Lauwerier, E. (2022) (Eds.). Community Sport and Social Inclusion. Enhancing Strategies for Promoting Personal Development, Health and Social Cohesion. Oxon-New York: Routledge.

Theeboom, M., Zhu, D., & Vertonghen, J. (2017). 'Wushu belongs to the world'. But the gold goes to China ... The international development of the Chinese martial arts. International Review for the Sociology of Sport, 52(1), 3–23.

Theeboom, M. (2012). A closer look at effects of martial arts involvement among youth. International Journal of Sport Management and Marketing, 11(3/4), 193-205.